A minimum of 9 countries and a maximum of 20 were represented at each UK Showcase

☞ The organization of XTRAX Showcase really did their utmost best to prepare a warm welcome to the international delegates. There were plenty of opportunities to network, both formally and informally. As this was the first time I attended at GDIF, I needed some time to develop new contacts, but XTRAX made it really easy to meet new people in the field of street arts, so this was a great start. ☞
