

BOTIS SEVA

DANCE ARTIST

Dance artist Botis Seva is entrenched in Hip Hop dance theatre but experiments with form, structure and theatrics to reinvent choreography. Borrowing from film, text, art and other dance languages, Botis' work portfolio crosses live performance, film, immersive experiences and outdoor spectacles.

Botis has previously worked with Channel 4, Almeida Theatre, Scottish Dance Theatre, Sadler's Wells, BBC2 to name a few. He has also won first place at the Copenhagen International Choreography Competition and Choreography 30 in Hannover. Botis was awarded Best New Dance Production at the 2019 Olivier's.
