Longer description of performance (100 words):

Dedicated to women, to love, to life, to friendship. In her new work for Candoco Dance Company, the company of disabled and non-disabled dancers, Caroline Bowditch reveals the extraordinary bonds we make throughout our lives. Dedicated to... is a celebration of female strength, support and friendship. Performed by two of Candoco's artists, the duet explores how people come in and out of our lives, how friendships evolve and adapt and how they can shape who we are.

About Candoco Dance Company:

Candoco Dance Company is a leading company of disabled and non-disabled dancers. We create excellent and profound experiences for audiences and participants that excite, challenge and broaden perceptions of art and ability. We commission internationally renowned choreographers to create bold and unpredictable new works on the company for both traditional and non-traditional settings. Touring across the world, we offer a diverse programme that ranges from full company works in mid-to-large-scale theatres, to small-scale duets for outdoor performances and non-traditional spaces.

In 2015 Candoco was awarded for 'Outstanding Achievement in Dance' at the UK Theatre Awards.
