

Pedaleando hacia el cielo

As darkness falls Pedaleando Hacia el Cielo, or shortly Pedaleando, tells a love story. About being together in dark days, about angels that balance between heaven and earth. Pedaleando Hacia el Cielo means 'cycling to heaven'; it brings people together and gives hope. Love declarations are translated through movements, breaths, a word, a song in this aerial performance. This performance is a mix of cinematic images, light, singing, dancing and live music that ends in an air spectacle. Through adapted movie images, the city itself forms the backdrop of this poetic dream world.
